DINING TABLE RICKON

The self-confident look: our Rickon dining table in an industrial style. The robust, rectangular steel frame – transparently lacquered to preserve its natural appearance – offers stable support and a confident design. The tabletop can be customized with high-pressure laminate panels (Compact Slim), solid wood, or various other tabletop materials. Ideally suited as a dining table for indoor areas in restaurants and canteens. The Rickon dining table is also available in a standing table version – matching as a product family.

- suitable for all rectangular tabletop formats
- including felt floor gliders
- rustic industrial look
